The image displays two screenshots of the Google Analytics website. The top screenshot shows the 'Create an account' setup page. It features a progress bar with five steps: 1. Account creation, 2. Property creation, 3. Business details, 4. Business objectives, and 5. Data collection. The main heading is 'Create an account', followed by the instruction: 'Create an Analytics account to collect and organize data. Accounts can access multiple data sources, using one or more measurement IDs.' Below this is a form for 'Account details' with a required field for 'Account name (Required)' containing the text 'My New Account Name'. A note states: 'Google Analytics is a business tool. Use it exclusively for purposes related to your trade, business, craft, or profession.' There is also a section for 'Account Data Sharing Settings' with a link to the 'Google Ads Data Processing Terms'. The bottom screenshot shows the 'Welcome to Google Analytics' dashboard. It includes the heading 'Welcome to Google Analytics', a subheading 'Google Analytics gives you the free tools you need to analyze data for your business in one place, so you can make smarter decisions.', and a blue 'Start measuring' button. Below this are three sections: 'Complete information' (Understand your site and app users to better check the performance of your marketing, content, products, and more.), 'Get insights only Google can give' (Access Google's unique insights and machine learning capabilities to make the most of your data.), and 'Connect your insights to results'. An illustration of two people looking at data on screens is on the right. Both screenshots show the browser's address bar with the URL 'https://analytics.google.com/analytics/web/provision/#/provision/create' and the Windows taskbar at the bottom.
